INDIA FAMINE RELIEF.

St. Louis Committee Organized for Immediate Aid.

The St. Louis Committee on India Famine Relief was organized at the Mercantile Cuby sesterday afternoon. O. L. White-law was chosen chairman, Festus J. Wade treasurer and a number of other prominent business men promised hearty co-operation in the work.

It is proposed to begin at once the gathering together of funds for the relief of 60,00,000 starving Indians; the money to be forwarded by telegraph to New York, and thence to Bombay by cable.

In this manner relief is almost instantaneous and more than doubly efficacious, because thousands are actually dying forwant of food every day.
Yesterday's meeting was addressed by Frederick D. Greene of New York, national organizing secretary for the India Relief Fund. Mr. Greene was once a missionary in the stricken country, and is thoroughly conversant with conditions there. He declared that is contributed right now would save the whole of an average Indian family from starvation, and would also provide the head of the house with enough seed to plant a crop, which should keep the family another twelvemonth. Ninety per cent of the people in the famine district live on small farms. The monsoon rains have now begun, and seed planted right away will produce crops in October.

"It is the most critical time of the terrible famine," said Mr. Greene. "Never before would so little money do so much good."

The following gentlemen have consented good."

Chief Executive Spent a Short Time Between the Arrival and Departure of Trains in Mak-

Governor Stephens went slumming in St. Louis Friday night with Chief of Police Campbell and Chief of Detectives Desmond. They saw the district between Nineteenth street and Jefferson avenue, Market and Pine streets as best they could in an hour and a half, creating no little excitement tmong the frequenters of the locality, who probably considered the visit of the chief executive and his companions the advance notice of some sort of action by the police, If they had such fears they were not well the party was merely for purposes of observation. Governor Stephens, accompanied by Mrs. Stephers and Miss Gordon of Jefferson City, arrived in the city on the 10 o'clock train from the State capital, en route to the East. They went to the Terminal Hotel, Soon after their arrival Chiefs Campbell and Desmond called upon the clovernor. He was not feeling in the best of condition after the trip on the train and complained of a beachache. He sug-gested going for a walk, and the party started north, without having any definite destination. Turning westward, when they reached Pine street, they proceeded to Jef-ferson avenue. They walked over to Chest-but street, and on the way went into several of the saloons of the neighborhood, Chief Campbell thereby illustrating that the places are more orderly than they have ever Panama, July 21, via Galveston, Tex., July 21.—(Copyright, 1900, by the New York been before. Two or three of the summer gardens along the street were also entered. At 11:20 the Governor and his wife and guest departed for the East.

His marvelous cures make him appear as a wizard, yet he lays no claim to the supernatural. His treatments are based on the latest scientific methods, although he uses certain secret preparations discovered during his travels in India, South Africa and Australia. His treatments are entirely his own and unknown to the medical profession at large.

So much has been written and said concerning the healing powers of Abbo's medicines and the marvelous cures he has performed in this city in the past few weeks that to those who reside outside of the city it reads like romance. So surprising have been many of his cures that not only the haymen but the medical world stands aghast in utter bewilderment at a power so potent and marvelous as to be able to break congestion in a few moments' time. Scores of chronic diseases that for years have deflet the combined skill of the medical world have been brought to Abbo's offices and in a remarkably short time those who were blind have been made to see, the deaf to hear, rheumatic pains have disappeared, and paralyzed limbs have taken on new life. No man ever came to St. Louis who has created so much excitement and performed such marvelous cures as Abbo has; whose name is on the lips of nearly every man, woman and child in St. Louis as Abbo, the Worder Worker.
